

Social Work Students and New Graduates!

We invite you to learn more about our

Barbara Bryan Mentorship Group Program

Please Share This Announcement

Designed to help social work students and new professionals cope with professional life before and after graduation. Groups are small and meet once a month.

Led by very experienced licensed clinical social workers, these groups provide you with information, both practical and clinical, to help you with guidance, growth and the latest knowledge, to be part of the evolving field.

What you can learn at our once-a-month meetings:

- Planning your career
- Information and support for job searches
- Case discussions
- Professional ethics
- Options for further training

Mentorship Group participation is FREE with membership in the NYSSCSW. Student membership, for students and new graduates, is presently $48 a year, for the first year.
