

Racial Tension, Racial Trauma: Issues, Impact & Influence

Friday October 19, 2018

Molloy College, Madison Theater

8:30 AM– 1:00 PM—4 CE's

2:00 PM—3:15 PM—Special Session
for Conference Co-Sponsors—1 CE

Sponsored by the Department of Social Work, Molloy College

Keynote Speaker—Dr. Kenneth V. Hardy

Kenneth V. Hardy, Ph.D. is a Professor at Drexel University in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania and is the Director of Eikenberg Institute for Relationships in NYC. He is an internationally recognized clinician, author, educator, and consultant. Dr. Hardy has provided Diversity and Racial Sensitivity training and consultations extensively. He has published prolifically and has received considerable acclaim for the contributions that his publications and videotapes have made toward challenging our field to think critically about issues of diversity, trauma and oppression. He has been featured on Dateline NBC, and 20/20, the Discovery Health Channel and the Oprah Winfrey Show.

Registration rates:

Early Registration $55.00 by July 20 * Registration $65.00 July 21—October 5

Late Registration $75.00 October 6—18 * Onsite Registration $85.00

To Register go to: www.molloy.edu/ce/sw

Questions regarding conference content? Contact: Dr. Amy Meyers

Email: ameyers@molloy.edu or Phone: 516-323-3890

Co-Sponsors:

