

Power, Privilege and Intersectionality: Pathways to Social Change

Join us for an afternoon discussion

with Guest Speaker

Michael Spencer,
PhD, MSSW

Wednesday

March 9, 2016

3:30—5:30 PM

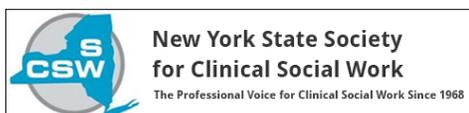

Hays Theatre

Open to the PUBLIC

2 CE's will be offered
(License # required at time of RSVP)

Co-Sponsored by

The Nassau/Suffolk Association of Black Social Workers,
The Nassau Division of the National Association of Social Workers, and the Nassau Chapter of the New York State
Society for Clinical Social Workers

- Gain a clearer understanding of the concepts of power and privilege.
- Raise awareness of contemporary forms of discrimination and the impact on individuals across social identity groups.
- Learn about non-violent resistance as a form of action for countering discrimination and oppression.

Mike Spencer, PhD, MSSW is a Professor of Social Work at the University of Michigan and is the former Associate Dean for Educational Programs. His research examines disparities in the physical and mental health and service use of populations of color. He has contributed to the social work literature on diversity and social justice and identity related issues such as power and privilege as it relates to prejudice and oppression of target and agent groups. Dr. Spenser has been nationally recognized by several research organizations.

RSVP and for more information contact:
Dawn Egan - dpegan@molloy.edu or (516) 323-3880